Course Catalog

Real Life Personal Finance (RLPF) Dual Credit – College Readiness for Non-Texas Public Schools

Description

RLPF is a blended, online, one-semester, financial literacy course with a ½ social studies credit. Many states provide extra funding for dual credit or college readiness programs to increase the number of students who enroll in higher education.

The course integrates financial, career, postsecondary education planning and reality-based math, with critical thinking, problem solving, teamwork, and project development. For quantity and multi-year licenses, contact Kenneth Decker.
